Many medical professionals are required to attain a certain number of Continuing Education Units (CEU's) or Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits on an annual or bi-annual basis to maintain licensure. CEUQ, also known as CEUQuest or CEUQuick, is designed as a portal to other sites with fully accredited CEU's and CME's that are offered FREE of charge. Knowing where to find CEU's and CME's online is no simple task even with today's latest computer technology. That's where we come in. We've done the work for you by finding as many sites as possible offering the credits you need for FREE! Why should you do your continuing education requirements online? The benefits are numerous. You work at your own pace to complete the study test, there is no need to disrupt your busy work or home schedule, and you complete the projects in the comfort of your own home or office. Yes, it is that easy. And now they are FREE! So if you're ready, get your CEUQuick! Updates and Announcements:

Hands Only CPR, approved by the American Heart Association, places emphasis on keeping the heart pumping and blood flowing. This new method is highly recommended for the layperson, not for medical professionals. iCPR.mobi is exciting to us for a number of reasons. Please notice that this site uses the extension .mobi (dot mobi). Sites like iCPR.mobi are made to compliance with .mobi standards work flawlessly on all smartphones, PDA's and even your PC. There is nothing to download, no code to enter.

Just simply enter iCPR.mobi into your mobile browser and that's it! Using dot mobi for mobile sites makes sense. And now saving a life is FREE!
